

The perfect choice!

Bischoff has been part of the textile centre of St. Gallen in Eastern Switzerland since 1927 and is internationally known for exclusive design and sophisticated fashion. Their design directions are based on history, nature and culture and these concepts inspire their designers to create the most exquisite embroideries worldwide. Bischoff supply the haute couture industry around the globe including the exclusive Australian market.

Our very own Nicole Kidman chose Bischoff for her wedding gown. For her nuptials to Keith Urban she wore an ivory, one-shouldered gown by leading French designer Nicolas Ghesquiere, the creative director of Paris fashion house Balenciaga.

Bischoff has a long tradition in designing exquisite embroideries for bridal wear and new collections are presented twice a year at the Premiere Vision in Paris.
