

Solbiati & Mitloedi

Solbiati, Italy is the market leader in production of linen textiles and the first company to introduce yarn dyeing to the natural fibre. Solbiati also led the way in producing linen crepe and today, they offer the largest range of yarn dyed linen textiles available worldwide.

Mitloedi Textildruck, Switzerland has a long tradition in quality printing of apparel fabrics. The company offers their clients the latest in design and technology and they continuously take on new challenges to achieve perfect results in printing for their customers.

This year Solbiati launched an exciting new dress fabric line in close partnership with Mitloedi Textildruck and together, they are presenting a beautiful and harmonious range of printed linens and cottons.

We're delighted to introduce this innovative collection to the Australian market; you'll love it! Please contact us today to view the range.
