

Overview of the program

Schnittpunkt Kunst + Kleid

St. Gallen, Switzerland 2.9. - 26.11.2006

AKRIS
Textilmuseum St. Gallen
September 2, 2006 to January 7, 2007
Guest Curator: Albert Kriemler, Akris

The focal point of this exhibition is Akris and its couture designer collection. Visitors will experience at first hand the company's innovative approach to fashion.

The city reflects on its reputation as the headquarters of world leading embroidery companies and as a cultural capital with a unique series of exhibitions revolving around the themes of fashion and art. From September 2006, various museums and cultural institutions in St.Gallen will be appearing at the meeting point of art and fashion.

For anyone working in art or fashion, attending this event is an absolute must.

Make sure this event gets to the top of your list of priorities when you visit Europe over the next few months. Be inspired!!

Best regards

Rita
ricamafabrics

For further information please visit www.schnittpunkt.sg/ausstellungen_en.htm

DRESSCODE

Historisches Museum St. Gallen
September 2, 2006 to January 7, 2007
Guest Curator: Gianni Jetzer

The exhibition centres on "dress" as an artistic symbol, highlighting issues of gender, emancipation and power.

Lifestyle

Kunstmuseum St. Gallen
September 2 to November 26, 2006
Curators: Konrad Bitterli, Roland Waespe

The exhibit Lifestyle – from subculture to high fashion - engages varied world views throughout the centuries in a playful dialogue. Old master portraits express the bourgeois sense of self and the works of contemporary artists illustrate the lifestyles and ideas of modern society.

MODUS

Neue Kunst Halle St. Gallen
September 2 to November 26, 2006
Curator: Gianni Jetzer
Guest Curator: Michelle Nicol

Artists create, design and alter textiles by Forster Rohner and Jakob Schlaepfer, St. Gallen. A reflection on fashion as a phenomenon of observance, pleasure and the innate search for eternal individuality.